Monday morning I was back at work
I asked my mother to give me some money
She said: "Son look what you've done tonight!
You're a hooligan and this is not very bright"

Everybody's dancing
Everybody's moving
Come and be the best one
Give me some time you better don't ask why

Sunday Morning I was in the Park
I fed some animals they were looking at me
"Hey pigeons, sparrows, what do you need?
Give me some time you better don't ask why!"

fuck you
