

The Legend of Zerno "Friendly Fire"

Visit "Friendly Fire" on MotoLyrics.com

I try to find meaning for time but I found myself looking down
Now it's time to act or hide
Can I watch you in those eyes

When we turn away
Innocent is harm

Don't stab your friends in the back
You should be knowing by now
We are humans, we make mistakes
Remember what I told you
You will be all alone
There will be no one to raise you up

Please open up this book
I tell you little tale of us
Yes we are the stars

I know I'm weak
but look who's talking

I feel this green poison in my heart now.
What's happening to me!

Please open up this book
I tell you little tale of us
Yes we are the stars
