I see the sun rising once again
It brings some hope to our eyes

These actions makin' me weak
This situation turns me weak

Rush forward, It's time to fight from our life
Open your eyes

I feel the pressure from above
I can do nothin'
I feel the pressure from above
The ground is pulling me through

I don't wanna be the weight in your arms
Yes I know the truth
These constant misfortunes are fading us away

I'm ready to face the consequence
Don't fear No Don't fear

And if there's someone looking into our poisoned eyes
I hope all get what they deserve and all that is in our own hands

I feel the pressure from above
I can do nothin'
I feel the pressure from above
The ground is pulling me through
