I told her that I love her but she never really believes She's a one girl of a kind that you wish you could have find Yeah, we tell 'em when we party, I say neighbor, say some names
That this bond we have inside doesn't come out with a flame
'Cause I notice how you feel, tell the story that was real
It was never meant to happen, we made our own decisions
And there's so many people in the world right now
You would pick me, you would pick me, I know somehow
As i

Took another trip to the world
All I could have bring was my pride
'cause this is not the life that she wanted
And I need her by my side
Yes, I need her by my side

I wanted just I need it when you say it wasn't there
I would tell you that I quit but the devil that's inside of me
Always taking over, so I kill how much it bleeds To say sorry for those days and I'm begging for forgiveness
Lovely as a rose but it always cut a stone That's a love that break when you push a little harder tell me how it takes Let's be honest for a second, Love is just a place that were coming home tonight
As i
Took another trip to the world
All I could have bring was my pride
'cause this is not the life that she wanted
And I need her by my side
Yes, I need her by my
Took another trip to the world
All I could have bring was my pride
'cause this is not the life that she wanted

And I need her by my side
Yes, I need her by my

Remember we decided that tomorrow was forever
Love is just a word that was keeping us together
I couldn't even speak but you know what you said
In time we'll send a message to the world out there
As i

Took another trip to the world
All I could have bring was my pride
Cause this is not the life that she wanted
And I need her by my side
Yes, I need her by my side

Love is just a word that was keeping us together
In time we'll send a message to the world out there
Yeah
