When I wake up in the morning
I find out that I'd been fighting all night long as I touch the floor with my feet
I realize I'm down in the street and have to go

Yeah you break up my days
and you break up my nights
and there's nothing I can do for now people think I'm mad
if I talk to myself
and there's nothing I can do for now

Brotherly love, I don't know what to do
Brotherly love, haven't got time
Brotherly love, making my days so blue
Brotherly love, still on my mind (x2)

When I pour the tea in my cup I'll go on and on and won't stop such a flood I just don't know what I'm thinking in fact I know what I'm thinking just of you

Yeah you break up my days
and you break up my nights
and there's nothing I can do for now
people think I'm mad
if I talk to myself
and there's nothing I can do for now

Brotherly love, I don't know what to do
Brotherly love, haven't got time
Brotherly love, making my days so blue
Brotherly love, still on my mind

When I wake up in the morning
I find out that I'd been fighting all night long
as I touch the floor with my feet
I realize I'm down in the street and have to go

and there's nothing I can do for now
people think I'm mad
if I talk to myself
and there's nothing I can do for now

Brotherly love, I don't know what to do
Brotherly love, haven't got time
Brotherly love, making my days so blue
Brotherly love, still on my mind
(x4)
