What is it about me
What did I do now
Why do his eyes light up
Every time he sees me
Did I do something funny?
Did I say something right?
I can't figure out why
Every time he looks my way, he smiles

My moves fall short of graceful
My tongue sometimes ties
I ain't got no money in my wallet
But my baby, he don't seem to mind
He must be in love with me
He must be in love with me
That's the only explanation there can be
He must be in love with me

When he first found me
My world turned upside down
Logic lost its place
You should see the way he looks at me now
He must be in love with me
He must be in love with me
That's the only explanation there can be
He must be in love with me
