Look alive I'll meet you at the park,
7.50 and the airs still hot,
we'll pull a sicky from out weekend jobs,
cause I can't promise that we'll make it home tonight.

You know why I'm calling,
so don't spend the night lone.
You know why I'm calling,

Yeah we'll be rolling from the green hail tops,
forty seconds from the old bus stop.
Don't even care we'll get a t-shirt tan,
getting good vibes from a cider can, yeah.

You know why I'm calling,
so don't spend the night alone,
we can sleep in the morning.

Cause every night can be a Saturday night.
It's not the time to be wise,
change your mind don't ignore me.
Every night is a Saturday night.
Come on and live your life,
we can sleep in the morning...now

Oh man it feels like an eternity,
but things are moving fast for you and me.
We've seen the best and worst of everything,
but we couldn't be in better company, tonight.

You know why I'm calling,
so don't spend the night alone,
we can sleep in the morning.

Cause every night can be a Saturday night.
It's not the time to be wise,
change your mind don't ignore me.
Every night is a Saturday night.
Come on and live your life,
we can sleep in the morning...

So hey, you and I, gotta make up for lost time.
It's not just another day, theres not a cloud in the sky.
So hey, you and I, well we've been through a lot,
in our short time.
It's not just another day, it's hit 25.

You know why I'm calling,
so don't spend the night alone,
You know why I'm calling,

Cause every night can be a Saturday night.
It's not the time to be wise,
change your mind don't ignore me.
Every night is a Saturday night.
Come on and live your life,
we can sleep in the morning...

and every night can be a Saturday night.
It's not the time to be wise,
change your mind don't ignore me.
and every night is a Saturday night.
Come on and live your life,
we can sleep in the morning... now.
