I am still in my room because,
I never want to become you,
In this world together for a long time,
Maybe you're sitting my room all this angel dust,
Will you try to make it better for every boy or girl,
Trying to see what going on,
I might get into my wrong direction,
I am so strong, That I need to be strong,
I'll held my hand to the mirror,
So this is breaking my ways to,
Like break my walls down, Break my walls down,
Break my walls down, In this powerful life was not
That easy way, You had so much trouble inside of me,
No one can't help me but I so strong that they won't
Know, That was all I can do Break my walls down oooh
Break my walls down

Trying my best to live on,
But it not the moment pass you,
I'm just alone with myself now,
Must take me a side, You try to take me way apart,
Just sit down I will wait for you,
Like my best friend talk to me,
Before you know it, When it not like these other,
I am so strong, That I need to be strong,
I'll held my hand to the mirror,
So this is breaking my ways to,
Like break my walls down, Break my walls down,
Break my walls down, In this powerful life was not
That easy way, You had so much trouble inside of me,
No one can't help me but I so strong that they won't
Know, That was all I can do Break my walls down
You get your together with your heart and soul,
Must watch to see I am, You believe in angel,
When they are gone, I feel the touch the walls,
Like I am past out for the night,
Not going to sleep all of this pain,
Wanted to be in my heart with your accent now,
I am so strong, That I need to be strong,
I'll held my hand to the mirror,
So this is breaking my ways to,
Like break my walls down, Break my walls down,

Break my walls down, In this powerful life was not
That easy way, You had so much trouble inside of me,
No one can't help me but I so strong that they won't
Know, That was all I can do
