It's a natural feeling
And it always comes easy
Like a gentle summer breeze
Blowing softly through my mind

When I feel the sensation
It's not a one night temptation
With an imprint of your love
That will linger for all times

Now you're touching secret places
No one's touched before
And I wanna feel you deep inside
Forever mi amour

Baby when two souls touch
(When our souls touch)
There's no way that you can escape from the rush
(The rush)
I'm under your power just like a flower
(I'm ready, baby)
Who's ready to open up when two souls touch?

For your love that I'm living
All the joy that your giving
The new light in my life
Prayed for you so many nights

There's no words to express it
(Words can't express it)
So I'd rather not dress it
Like the shadows on the wall
Speak the eloquence of love

Now you're touching secret places
No one's touched before
And I wanna feel you deep inside
Forever mi amour

Baby when two souls touch
(Baby the way you touch me, yeah)
There's no way that you can escape from the rush

(No way there's no way, boo)
I'm under your power just like a flower
(Under your power)
Who's ready to open up when two souls touch?

Loving you constantly seems to be all I need
My only thought, my one desire
When your love's deep inside feels so good I could cry
Tears of joy like raindrops from the sky, from my eyes

Baby when two souls touch
There's no way that you can escape from the rush
(You can't escape my love)
I'm under your power just like a flower
(I'm under your power)
Who's ready to open up when two souls touch?

Baby when two souls touch
(There ain't no way you can escape the rush)
There's no way that you can escape from the rush
(Oh no)
I'm under your power just like a flower
(I'm under your power just like a flower)
Baby, baby, baby, baby
