(Verse 1)

(Richboy Dee)

Should've Known Better To Believe You B*es
Should've Known Better Y'all Would Take My Riches
Should've Known Better You Would Sleep With Other Guys
Should've Known Better To Believe All Of Your Lies
No One Ever Made Me Feel This Way
I Fell In Love With You From The Text The First Day
You Hurt Me To The Core But Baby That's Okay
Cause I'm Gonna Live My Life Anyway
Listen Baby I'm Just Gonna Tell You This Once
Your Not Gonna Play With My Heart For Fun
Been Here So Many Times My Life Is On Rewind
I'm About To Go Blind

(Olivia)

Where do I go
Where do I go from here
Where do I go

Tell me how did we end up this way
Never miss a good thing til it's gone away
Sitting here tryna reason with myself
While you were here thinking bout someone else

Saying you sorry wont take away the pain
Cause things will never ever be the same Cause I was your everything and you were my everything
And you got my heart you see baby

Should I go should I stay I don't know (maybe I should go)
This is what I ask myself
Call me a fool for loving you

Baby, tell me where do I go from here

Where do I go
where do I go from here
Where do I go

I don't really wanna say bye bye
There's so many reasons why
I don't ever wanna lose ya love baby

When trust walks right out the door
It makes it so hard to believe you any more
This shouldn't be
Oh baby tell me

Where do I go from here, where do I go
Where do I go from here, where do I go
Where do I go from here, where do I go
Where do I go from here, where do I go
Where do I go from here, where do I go
Where do I go from here, where do I go
