(verse1)

i start to sit back and think and memorize your face
i havent seen you in weeks
my eyes feel like mase

(verse2)

i have memories of you
and dreams that wont come true i remember lying in your room so what do i do?

(bridge)

when my feelings fail
and my mind starts to impale
i gotta let this go
but your holding on so...

(chorus)

i'd rather let you be
so you can be happy
without me
thats my dream

(verse3)

when you speak to me
i seem moody
because in my dream
you wasnt laying next to me

(verse4)

i start to be blunt
and put on a front
the arguments come
because thats what i want!

(bridge2)

you to hate me
cant you see
i wont leave
till you leave me

(chorus2)

i'd rather let you be
so you can be happy
without me
thats my dream
