I ask myself everyday, Why god took you away

There is no justice, there is no reason why

There's so much to say, When I look up to the stars
It is you I think of

(So many times I have been broken down
Thinking to myself is this how it ends?)

Then I close my eyes and think of you
You are my everything
You are my guiding star)

Everytime I close my eyes
You come back to me

Everytime I think of us
It feels so unreal

Still I feel you
(I feel you from above)

I can see you
(You are my guiding star)

Everytime I close my eyes
You come back to me

I look myself in the mirror, Who's this man I see?

Tell me mother if I'm doing right
Am I the son you wanted? The one that makes you proud?

The one that makes you proud
(I want to make you proud)

(So many times I've been broken down
Thinking to myself is this how it ends)

Then I close my eyes

and think of you
You are my everything
You are my guiding star)

Everytime I close my eyes, you come back to me
Everytime I think of us, it feels so unreal

Still I feel you
(I feel you from the stars above)

Still I see you
(I see you, you are my guiding star)

Everytime I close my eyes
You come back to me.
