You know I don't know how but I'm gonna bite
my lip for now,
I always say what I think, he wouldn't hold your hair back
When you had too much to drink
I'll hold my lip for now

I hate people who judge but the juries out
He's too selfish for you
I'll hold my lip for now
I hate people who judge but the juries out
He's too selfish for you
I'll hold my lip for now

How long is it safe to hold my lip
Because I'm in a no win predicament
Your boyfriend is a tool
Your boyfriend is a tool

Don't let him tell you what to do, don't live his life or you'll be in strife.
It's all up to you
I'll hold my lip for now
Don't let him wear you down, like a failed dad, or it's going to drive you mad
I'll hold my lip for now

How long is it safe to hold my lip
Because I'm in a no win predicament
Your boyfriend is a tool
Your boyfriend is a tool
