I don't know how to say stop before you do
And I don't know where I should look
I don't know how to stay calm like you do
And I don't know where I should look

Whatever is happening is happening here
And I'm a fool for thinking otherwise
Whatever is happening is happening here
And I'm a fool for thinking otherwise

I was just thinking the same as you were
And I was just taking my time
And I was just looking for outs like you were
And I was just falling in line

Whatever is happening is happening here
And I'm a fool for thinking otherwise
Whatever is happening is happening here
And I'm a fool for thinking otherwise

Soon it will be love, soon it will be love again
Soon it will be love, soon it will be love again

Whatever is happening is happening here
And I'm a fool for thinking otherwise
Whatever is happening is happening here
And I'm a fool for thinking otherwise
