"Don't"

Whenever you're running, i'll want to be with you forever and always. We'll run 'til your feet bleed too.
I'm in pain. I'm not going nowhere- and i'm going insane. I'll wait until I break too. You're breathing- i'm needing. I loved you from the start- you're what's left of my heart too.
(chorus) ...and honestly don't run away. Don't speak up-what's there to say? Heartless memories.
Whenever you're running, i'll never forget you. You're burned in my memory. I promised that I loved you. I'm bleeding- retreating. My life is in reverse and I can't see what I do.
