Walking up the street with you- even when it was fresh and new. In the cold, not so bold. Fearing everything that i've known. Nasty pains in the rains. Everyone, follow me. This way, Sweet Revenge.

Walking up and down the lane. I have partially gone insane. In the lake, life is fake. better swim, it's for your own sake. Raging mind- angered blind. Fearless people with me. This way, Sweet Revenge.

I still don't need Sweet Revenge. I still don't need Sweet Revenge. I still don't need Sweet Revenge.

Walking up the path of sticks. Life is just a hard thing to fix. Breaking hearts, ending starts. Fear the end, you get washed away. Running down, hit the ground. Hurry, get up before you drown. Sweet Revenge.

Walking up this Lifeless Drive. Almost possible to survive. Steady on. Miles long. Pay attention, no you're not wrong. Close your eyes- no one lies. You are only experiencing Sweet Revenge.

Sweet Revenge...
