[Piano]

I left me once, you said never we could have been together forever if you hadn't had lost you paient and that was the only thing i had about you

{Chorus}

But now just a piece of meat
I loved but I can think again but I thought we were more than friends but now your just a selfless cow use me to get to another level

I thought you were best girl I ever met, beautiful as well you looked at me with you wonderful eyes and I melted for you forever more but I guess I will think again

{Chorus}

I loved but I can think again
but now your just a selfless cow
