(Jade)

What would you do? What would you say?
How does it feel? Pretend it's OK
My eyes deceive me, but it's still the same
Pretend it's OK

(Perrie, Jade)

I remember the day when we rowed all night
I wish that I can get the day back and tell you it's alright
Cause we all do the same thing, we destroyed realized
That we're living on borrow and time

(All)

What would you do? What would you say?
How does it feel? Pretend it's OK
My eyes deceive me, but it's still the same
Pretend it's OK

(Jade, Perrie)

I see the light that I'm chasing
And ... but it's fading
When it's gone I'll be waiting
Know when it's too late
Chose the road that I'm walking
Now it is all
Enjoy it hearing when I'm calling
Calling you name

(Perrie)

One breath, one step, one life, one heart
Towards to eyes you begin a new start
To heat, to never, to show, to ...,
I'm ... with you here by my side

(All)

What would you do? What would you say?
How does it feel? Pretend it's OK
My eyes deceive me, but it's still the same
Pretend it's OK

(Jesy)

Nothing here, no one talking, know when it's too late
But sometimes it can get so hard pretending it's OK
Nothing here, no one talking, nothings gonna change
But sometimes it can get so hard pretending it's OK

(All)
What would you do? What would you say?
How does it feel? Pretend it's OK
My eyes deceive me, but it's still the same
Pretend it's OK

What would you do? What would you say?
How does it feel? Pretend it's OK
My eyes deceive me, but it's still the same
Pretend it's OK

(All)
Ohh yeah
What would you do? What would you say?
Pretending it's OK
What would you do? What would you say?
