Come on and doubt me I dare ya, you're just too condescending
Name me some damn reason, our names are set in stone
My scars are finally healing, yours beg to be exposed
My dreams live on tonight, but what's left of yours?

And I'll be fine
Take the first train no time to say goodbye
Wish away the face I came to know
Sometimes you gotta let go

Restless now aren't ya (cha), I've realigned the stars
You can't escape now, from your reckless heart

And I'll be fine
Take the first train no time to say goodbye
Wish away the face I came to know
Sometimes you gotta let go
Call me crazy, hate me, love me
No such thing as the way it should be now
All I got ta do is break freeeee

And I'll be fine
Take the first train no time to say goodbye
Wish away the face I came to know
Sometimes you gotta let go
Gotta let go
Gotta let go
