Perfect eyes in the moonlight shining
Trading glances on the boulevard
My shadow melts to a thousand pieces
Catch my breath just to hear you now

It's getting late and the streets are lonely
Your in my heart am I on your mind
In the skies dance your reflections
You reach out it'll all be fine

Will you mend my broken wings
You perfect stranger
When the sky turns cold with midnight
You're the sunrise to the sea
Perfect stranger

After hours and countless seconds
I can't find the words to say
Darlin' your all I'm after
You fill the spaces breaking me
Will you mend my broken wings
You perfect stranger
When the sky turns cold with midnight
You're the sunrise to the sea
Perfect stranger
Will you mend my broken wings
You perfect stranger
When the sky turns cold with midnight
You're the sunrise to the sea
Will you mend my broken wings
You perfect stranger
When the sky turns cold with midnight
You're the sunrise to the sea
Perfect stranger
My perfect stranger
