"Tiny Steps"

I just want more of your little tiny steps
More of that Grace Kelly black dress
I have your other you so tied up.

He doesn't want to kiss me anymore
I should let him go
Let him go
Let him go
Let him go.

Look at you holding it all together
Quietly filling your bags of heaven
Your fingers turn white with the lack of heat
Let's jump in the air,
And we'll land on the beat.

He doesn't want to kiss me anymore
I just let him go
Let him go
Let him go.

I only wanted you
I only wanted you.

I just want more of your little tiny steps
More of that Grace Kelly black dress.
