Hey, hey, oh, oh, oh

See all I ever wanted was a window to sit close to
And you don't understand but in the end you aren't supposed to
I'm talking first class
30,000 feet under my ass
Living life on the dash
Constant pursuit of cash now
I'm living the life that you and yours could only dream about
And just a couple years ago the shit I used to scheme
about
Rehearsing for hours in front of my mirror
Until my voice was hoarse but my vision was clearer See this that new school style with a flow remind you of the old days
Fast forward to the present
Rappers have no class like snow days
Good god, let me bring it back
To hip hops' first rena since '96
Kool Aid, and Sega genesis

Hey yo Hey yo
how you keep it so real
I love the way your lyrics make me feel
Roll it and get high
Light it up and fly
Feeling like I'm 30,000 feet up in the sky
I got 'em saying
Hey yo Hey yo
how you keep it so real
I love the way your lyrics make me feel
Roll it and get high
Light it up and fly
Feeling like I'm 30,000 feet up in the sky

I just want a chance to fly
A chance to cry
And a longer cry

Yeah
so many people think that know my whole situation Conversations with people that handle public relations
Nothing but hundred dollar bills and standing ovations
Slowly pacing until I kill like that boy Jason
It ain't nothing
Never folding or bluffing
Get money fuck bitches but respect women cuz we love
'em
Kiss 'em touch 'em and rub 'em
Fuck 'em but never grub 'em
Hit it fast but then I slow it down like Robitussin Shorty giving me brain until concussion the club run out of vodka the second we rush in Never underestimate the power in which I'm bustin
My lyricism got your girl blushing
Ain't even touch her and yet she gushing
Ha award shows chilling with all my bros
3 piece ralph lauren and some jordans I suppose

Hey yo Hey yo
how you keep it so real
I love the way your lyrics make me feel
Roll it and get high
Light it up and fly
Feeling like I'm 30,000 feet up in the sky
I got 'em saying
Hey yo Hey yo
how you keep it so real
I love the way your lyrics make me feel
Roll it and get high
Light it up and fly
Feeling like I'm 30,000 feet up in the sky

Out my mind I'm tossing back and forth between here and hoslin
I dont wanna time travel no more i wanna be here
I'm thinking
sit on this porch i'm rocking back and forth like lighty hopkins Sss if anybody's been discarded
Tell 'em beam me up
