I wrote a bunch of letters
Thought it made me look like a fool
Never mailed any of 'em

I just wanna talk to you girl
Mama you know who you are
I just got something I wanna say

Baby do you remember
Warm summers and cool winters
Songs by soul singers
The feeling it still lingers
Elevated by my kisses
You melt in between my fingers
Baby girl
Sometimes I wish that I could just rewind the shit and take it back
I had visions but they just fade to black
My train of thought is on a different track
When you're in love it's hard to separate fiction from fact
Your image in my head and I'm tryna get rid of that
But you're always on my mind like a fitted hat
Baby girl I wanna bring it back
To puppy love
When you were sent from up above
To care for me
Said that you'd always be there for me
And even though you're gone
It's like you never left Cuz you're always in my heart and still take away my breath
Can I love?
Baby girl can I love?
I said mama can I love?
Yeah can I love?

I wanna laugh with you
Run the water and take a bath with you
Stay up late and watch romantic comedies
When it comes down to it

You're my hearts commodity
Yeah, uh and now I'm feeling like a fool
Writing love letters that you'll probably never get
And right now I love you more than I'd like to admit
Maybe because we're separated
Unto you this song is dedicated
I'm love sick and I need you to medicate it
Feeling devastated
I think about the past and now I hate it
Cuz all that proves is that we never made it
Uh, see me and shorty got history like a text book
But lately our position has changed like that sex book
Miss independent she the type to hold her own
Late night contemplating all alone
The kingdom is empty without the queen upon the throne
Can I love?
Baby girl can I love?
Mama can I love?
Imma ask you can I love?

They say there's many more in the sea
But rather than go fish I play solitaire
I look around and see you everywhere
But at the same you're never there
Fingers through your hair
Reminiscing bout when and where Remember when we pulled up to that spot and did it there?
See I hate to watch you walk away
But I love to watch you cum
Baby girl you're so lustful but innocent when it's done
The love we share is like a fine wine
Cuz no matter what happens it only gets better with time
Baby girl you're so fine
That I had to take the time
To articulate this rhyme with you in mind
You're so divine
Ain't no matter who you fuckin' with
Or no matter who I'm fuckin with You'll still be mine
Will we make it? I don't know
The only thing that will tell us is time
Can I love?
Can I love?
Baby girl can I love?
Can I love?
