Most kings get their head shot

Money mechanic transatlantic

Smoked salmon & thyme

Hacking the planet

Peace to eleven

I improvise

Triple 7s lower heaven

East mississippi side

New York City be specific

4 evolve & synthesize

Circuits and series

Its a circus so sincerely

Peep serpents sliding near to me

Call it a conspiracy

Service with a smile look at me now

Just gotta let it breathe

Fiend before I became a teen 8xtreme

Still no rest for the weary

I reflect & see clearly

Finish strong I'm in a new world

(I dont pray no hail Mary)

Locked groove sliding inna new zone

Switching two sides like brother muzon

Interstitial whats the issue

All systems a go

Need no assistance I descended

From a limitless code

No religion universal rhythm

All in controool

Sharp as the point on the pyramid

You want it now here it is

CHORUS

Mind tricks the body

Get it all aligned

Brooklyn morning haze upon us

Raise the blinds

Seizing everything available

Today is mine (x2)

(Ju)

I wouldn't pay for something I pray
Fudges' back and stay here forever now we
Work with fucking all this zombie skinny coffee sots
Deprived of simple little funny thoughts
From sunrise and right up until sunset
Was walking round the city, so numb hand
Plunged into melted gluing chewing and accruing gum
Through the turbid glass I really believe and need to see the sun
High bang, high class heavy tank
Modern fence's truly faced with crank
Brass band's ill-clad
No muss and there's no fuss
Go pick the buss with cuss
Friday. Seaside. Bottom's sea light
Crushed by pressure know its hard man but I keep fight
It's our in-joke for toffee now
And it's not about the blonde

CHORUS

Mind tricks the body
Get it all aligned
Today is mine (x2)

Slack babies stole my coffee cow
And logged in down town
I use quips, stay calm
Living in this zone-zone
These people stole my coffee cow
Then logged in down town
If you hear this sound
You're in interstitial zone-zone
