your voice your touch isn't there no more, no hugs, no kisses, there's no love at all.
no time for me like you had before, the sun is killing me,
have you found love in somebody else? someone that gives what I can't have, you and I hold on to our memories, open up and killing me.

if she's the one, if she's the one, If she's the one then im ready to let go if she's the one then let me know,

Can't ease my mind,
I'm about to crack, youre in, youre out, what's the point of that? need help no time, I'm a total vrack, the sun is killing me, baby we either put a little lie, we either couldn't it turn cause, if you found love in somebody else open up and tell me, if she's the one, if she's the one, if she's the one then I'm ready to let go, if she's the one then let me know, let me go, let me go, gotta let me go let me know if we sober, let me know, let me know, gotta let me know, let me know if we sober, if she's the one, if she's the one, if she's the one then i'm ready to let go, if she's the one then let me know, let me go, she's the one let me go, if she's the one then let me go, If she's the one then let me know, if she's the one then im ready to let go if shes the one then let me know...
