I said I didn't love you, but I did I said I was never coming back, but I did I said it was never meant to be, but it was

I have always loved you, but I never had a good way of showing it
I always yelled for the hell of it, I never wanted to hurt you

Life has its funny ways of stuffing us up, but it never meant to go this far I never wanted to jump, a huge lump caught in my throat
When you yelled my name I knew it was too late, this was my passing this was my fate

I had always believed in happy endings, but for me that wasn't the case
I was just another one who broke your heart into a thousand pieces
I will never be able to forget you, but you still have that choice
Now your eyes fill with grief of something that shouldn't of been

I thought killing myself was the only way, but now I know it hurt you more than it hurt me I was only searching for a way to be free
This was my one and only option, As I lay on my hard stone grave I wish that I had a different path to choose that didn't lead me here all I know now is that I've been taken out of your arms forever

I never really knew how much I loved you until I falling to my death
I thought our love was unconditional but when you left that's what made me do it I knew it was the wrong thing to do, but it's too late now so I lay on my hard stone grave Never to see your face again
