Ding dong, ding dong

Well, I got the idea at the PTA

The parents and the teachers were discussing the day

Well in comes a teacher strolling through the door

She slipped on a 'nana peel and hit the floor

The teacher took a hop, then she landed like a mop

I got the idea that the teacher could hop

Well, I'm going back to school just as fast as I can

(Unintelligible)

I wanna dance with the teacher

I wanna dance with the teacher

I wanna dance with the teacher

I wanna dance with the teacher

I wanna go to school to learn about the golden rule

Just dancing with the teacher

Well they're gonna be surprised when they get the news

Like Betty Lou I got a new pair of shoes

And with these shoes I'm gonna do the hop

When I take the teacher to the high school hop

We're going up in the air, we're going over the chair

Me and the teacher with the greatest of care

My papa told me son when you finish school

You can do anything that you wanna do

So let me dance with the teacher

So let me dance with the teacher

So let me dance with the teacher

So let me dance with the teacher

I want the teacher's hand

We'll do some magic in this land

Dancing with the teacher
