I was hung up on the subway
When I noticed you were looking my way
You licked your lips sayin' "I have a taste"
Where do I begin?
You hooked me in in the first place
Little did I know that this was a game
You had that look on your face, so I let you in

Oh oh oh oh try to let go
You're no good for me

You can't get enough of the rush, baby
You can't get enough, just a crush, lately
Strung out spun around, love sick feel your heart pound
You can't get enough, nothing but a
Heart Chaser

I had that feeling gotta stay
But really we couldn't complain
You had that look on your face
So I let you in
