What You Want:

I see it in you; something has changed
You're not sure which way to go
You know that it's true and you'll rearrange
When you finally know

'cause I don't want to wait another day to hear
If you're gonna stay or go and face your fears

I can be the shoulder you need
when you beg and you plead for change
I'm making sure you land on your feet
When you know what you need
Should you stay

Because you're moving so slow
Is this really what you want?
You don't have to go
Is this really what you want?

It's colder outside, open your eyes
Here is not what you need
This winter's a sign, you cry and you cry
You've gotta get on your feet

'cause I don't want to wait another day to hear
If you're gonna stay or go and face your fears

I can be the shoulder you need
when you beg and you plead for change
I'm making sure you land on your feet
When you know what you need
Should you stay
So take your time, but you don't know
What you'll find if you go
I can be the shoulder you need
when you beg and you plead for change
