You took my hand
Led me down to the river
So we could see the setting sun
You promised love
And I could see forever
You said I was the only one

(I saw the rain)

There we stood
Looking from a mountain
How could it happen so fast
Your love was sweet
But there were storms a comin'
And then I knew it couldn't last

I saw the rain, I saw the rain
I saw the rain, I saw the rain (I saw the rain)

When I looked up I had lost my ground
You were too far ahead
I went to sleep
When I awoke this morning
You were still in my head

I saw the rain, I saw the rain
I saw the rain, I saw the rain (I saw the rain)

The fever starts I wish that we were closer
But we were destined to end
I wish we could
Run through the hills forever
And I could call you my friend

I try to stop the pain I feel inside
But I have fallen too hard
It's you I lost
But you are not forgotten
You will always have my heart

I saw the rain, I saw the rain
I saw the rain, I saw the rain (I saw the rain)
