Feelings, feelings, feelings for you babe
Feelings, feelings, feelings for you babe
Feelings, feelings, feelings for you babe

When I met you, oh, always thought I knew baby, Everything I had to do to make you stay, baby
Now you've gone away, oh, it's not a happy day, baby,
I guess I'm never deep enough, to make you stay, oh well oh

What am I supposed to do, baby, I've never gotten over you
My help is thrown, my confidence is gone,
About time you listen to this song

I wanna let you know I still get feelings for you babe, hey
Baby why don't you stay (stay), cause it's not fading away, no
I wanna let you know I still get feelings for you babe, oh well
Baby why don't you stay, cause it's not fading away, no no no no

(Girl I told you that I've got)

Feelings (hey) feelings, feelings for you babe (Feelings for you baby)
Feelings (Ah), feelings, feelings for you babe
(For you babe babe babe babe)

Girl I like to know, oh, what I had to do baby
The time is overwhelmed to the way it was, baby Smiling on the outside, oh, it's nothing but a front baby
Is this thing a masquerade what I feel inside, oh well

I can't hold back much longer, no
Feelings getting stronger
Where ever you are, let me know you care
