How do you turn around?
When you're sure that its over now
How do you face your fears?
When this could only end your tears

Chase every rainbow as fast as you can
Feeling that you've earned your last chance
Hiding from shadows hoping you'll find
What's gonna make it alright

Its bitter or sweet
You're knocked off your feet
So be logical
It hurts you to much but never enough
I think its sinical

It spins you around
You're lost then you're found
But thats whats magical about
The insanity of love
The insanity of love
(The insanity love)

How do you lose your mind?
Why does it does it feel so good inside?
Don't care what price you pay
'Cause all that matters is today

Chase every rainbow fast as you can
Feeling like you've earned you're last chance
Search every shadow hoping you'll find
What's gonna make it alright

It's bitter or sweet
You're knocked off your feet
So be logical
It hurts you too much
But never enough
I think it's sinical
It spins you around
You're lost and you're found
But thats whats magical aout

The insanity of love
The insanity of Love
(The insanity of love)

Take a breath 'cause its gonna be alright
Clear your head cause you'll need to be uptight
There's something there that you just can't see
Don't be scared I know you're gonna get there!!!
It's so amazing how

It's bitter or sweet
You're knocked off your feet
So be logical
It hurts you to much
But never enough
I think its sinical
It spins you around
You're lost then you're foun
But thats whats magical about
The insanity of love
The insanity of love
(the insanity of love)
