The sun, shines off your face
Like clouds we lay on, you and me
The stars they're watching on
Lost in your beauty, so far away
Like air you breathe me in,
I feel you then, become one with me... (oooh)

(And the thunder sounds and the lightning strikes)
And your body, ooh girl I see your change
That's the signs of rain (oooh)(Yeah)

Your eyes unleash the signs of warning
Add skies of moaning, for me
That's how your world, comes to exploding
Begging for me to set you free...

(Yeahh)

(And the thunder sounds and the lightning strikes)
And your body, I see the change(oooh)
That's the signs of rainn

Feel the rumble, taking over
You can't hold your emotions
Feel the climax and let it pour
The signs of rain
You can't ignore, it feels like heaven
Openend up it's door, let it fall,
Let it fall, the signs of rain

And the thunder sounds and the lightning strikes(x2)

I could sit here all day next to you
I could lay here up late (ooh) next to you
I can watch you go to sleep right here next to you
Darling I just wanna be next to you... next to you...
Next to you (x2)
