So bring my heart, Ophelia
Bring it straight to my front door
Oh my heart, Ophelia
I can't take this hurt no more
I got a girl who can't stand still
I got a girl that'll never get her fill
She'll leave me here to hang out on this line
She'll do it once and she'll do it anytime
So bring my heart, Ophelia
Bring it straight to my front door
Oh my heart, Ophelia
I can't take this hurt no more
I got a girl with poison in her bones
Takes what she needs and leaves the rest alone
She stole my heart in a broken valentine
She'll do it once and she'll do it anytime
Well I'm sending out a signal
Surrender!
A little white flag waving, plain
There ain't no horizon for a blind man to see
I guess I'm the only one to blame
So bring my heart, Ophelia
Bring it straight to my front door
Oh my heart, Ophelia
I can't take this hurt no more
