Here we come again
Like a message in the pouring rain
And every now and then
I still call your name

Like partners in crime
Every once in a while
The the fishes at sea
It's just the life we lead

We're going up
We're going down again

We're going up
We're going down again

Watch us fall

And time stood still
In a distant town
I know you
I know you much too well
Last year you said
It's time to settle down
Last time I saw you
You were still running around

Going up
Going down again

Watch us fall
Watch us fall

Remember when you said
It's time to settle down
Well last time I saw you
You were still running around

Going up
Going down again
We're going up
We're coming down again

Watch us fall
Watch us fall
Watch us fall
Watch us fall
