You're old and dying.
But not regret at all.
The last time now you smile.
Because tonight you know.
Your life's the only sand.
A sand in hour-glass.
Before two worlds unite.

The last sigh.
The last beat in the chest.
Around you sorrow and tears.
But inside joy and pray.
You're leaving and stay.

The last sigh.
The last beat in the chest.
Around you sorrow and tears.
But inside joy and pray.
You're leaving and stay.

Your life's the only sand.
A sand in hour-glass.

Before two worlds unite.
First pain, first cry.
Your memory knocks you down.
Silver hair turns into dust.
And the sand disappears at last.

The last sigh.
The last beat in the chest.
Around you sorrow and tears.
And inside joy and pray.
You're leaving and stay.

The last sigh.
The last beat in the chest.
Around you sorrow and tears.
And inside despair and frost.
Game is over. You have lost!

You're old and dying.
But not regret at all.
The last time now you smile.
Because tonight you know.
