At first you were a little desperate then you came around I saw you there looking towards the ground you gotta give it up cuz you gotta rise past the mountains past the clouds you gotta rise higher then your insurcurities and live to be real to be yourself just rise don't despise you need me there to catch you when you fall this may be worth nothing at all but I don't care no I don't care you need to rise to be fair to yourself you gotta rise past the mountains past the clouds you gotta rise higher then your insurcurities and live to be real to be yourself just rise don't despise you need me the to catch you when you fall this may be worth nothing at all but I don't care no I don't care you gotta rise to be fair to yourself this is the time you gotta shine at first you were a little desperate then you came around I saw you there looking towards the ground you gotta give it up cuz you gotta rise past the mountains past the clouds you gotta rise higher then your insurcurities and live to be real to be yourself and that's all it is I will be there when you fall this may be worth nothing at all but trust me this may be great but it's fates desision where we end up but when you rise from the ground you won't be looking down but when you rise I see in your eyes your insurcurities running through your mind just trying to break through you but your stronger cuz you rised past the mountains past the clouds and that's all it is
