I will crumble this ground that you walk on
They will poison you
Make you think for them
As we look up and see

Dismantle this machine
We found a better way
Dismantle this machine
We found a better way
We found a better way out

Your conviction is shaking
And your knees fall to the motion
As the ground is separating
Enemies fall in the ocean

All the things that this world had to offer
Mean nothing now
So the world has to suffer
All these kings and all these princes
Have made their changes
We will make them pay

We don't want to reign as kings
We only want the colossus
To split his crown as we tear him down
To show him what is honest
We don't want to reign as kings

We only want the colossus
To split his crown as we tear him down
To show him what is honest

You could have walked this road
But you were dishonest
And you thought that you were flawless

All the things that this world had to offer
Mean nothing now
So the world has to suffer
All these kings and all these princes
Have made their changes

We will make them pay
