Evil winds howl 'cross the frozen plain
Demons fury floods my mind again
Multitudes of homeless wander lost and scared
Into the burning lake of fire they are dared

Hell's gates open with a dream
Feel the fire lick your body clean
Hell waits the time is soon at hand
Hell's gates will open where you stand

Another shaded face among the crowd
Mindless voices screaming right out loud
Ghostly chanting ringing in my head
Shaping frightful visions of the tortured and the dead

Hell's gates open with a dream

Feel the fire lick your body clean
Hell waits the time is soon at hand
Hell's gates, Hell's gates
Will open where you stand

Pages turn sinners burn
Judgment comes to all
Satan's rule for the fool
Who never saw the fall
Days will end God will send
His only son to slay
The demons seeds of hate and greed
Has eternal debts to pay

Hell's gates open with a dream
Feel the fire lick your body clean
Hell waits the time is soon at hand
Hell's gates are opening like he planned
