

Omen "Holy Martyr"

One has seen the power and the glory
Whom shall save us from our selves at last
Prophets tell of latter years in mourning
Voices cry out warnings from the past

Disciples of the Dead- Sea Scrolls are preaching
The soul of man lived from the dawn of time
With every passing day
Mankind is reaching for the gift of truth from the divine

Do we believe in the Holy martyr
What is the secret yet to be unveiled
Must offerings be made upon the altar

Hallowed be thy name or has he failed

Reverance is easy
When you sing a Gospel Hymn
For the moment tranquil feelings do rise
But as trails and tribulations
Of your world begin
What once was truth is sabotaged by lies

Do we believe in the Holy martyr
What is the secret yet to be unveiled
Must offerings be made upon the altar
Hallowed be thy name or has he failed
