When the Sun goes down
And street lamps burn
It's your time now
You've got a lesson to learn

Racing with the best
Feeling really mean
You're gonna face the test
You're a party to the scene

Crank it up
Set the place on fire
Burn it up
You're living on desire

No more rules
To the game
Life and death
One in the same

Filling every need
A man who's tough as steel
With power and with speed
As the music that you feel

Thrashing till you drop
But there is no pain
You can never stop
It's like thunder in your brain
Metal mongers to the very end
Metal music the power we defend
Driving forces cruise the speed of light
Feel the surge of energy
To kill on sight

Slowly forces rising
Driven by the sound
There's no compromising
The freedom that we've found

Down through the ages
Soon to be complete

We are tomorrow's warriors
Marching in the street

Metal mongers to the very end
Metal music the power we defend
Driving forces cruise the speed of light
Feel the surge of energy
To kill on sight
