Can I say hello without you frowning?
I need a lady, not a baby, in your pictures pouting
Death to the duck face, I'm scheming harder
Faded, ain't seen no barber
Hey man, this web got my name known like Peter
Parker

When I'm meeting these women never say what I do Let them see for themselves, give 'em tea and they smooth
Damn, you must have met a lot of lames
'Cause she thinking that everything got sell a nice game
She said we all the same, all men really wanna do is smash
You start off like the good guy but that will never last
If you focus on the past, girl, that's all you'll ever have Not pure, but I'm genuine, so let me get you mad

Tell me why are you so angry
I guess you think it's cute
And your body's looking nice
Put your habit to this room
Kinky ass
I can see through your disguise
Tell me why you act so high
Guess you must be feeling low
Looking mean all the time, why you putting on a show
Kinky ass
I can see through your disguise
I know it's no lights and it's no cameras
And nobody on the set screaming out action
But you should smile
Baby, don't frown

To all these mamas, all these papas, what y'all doing with these daughters
Think you tell 'em that they're gorgeous then y'all tell
'em what's important
I don't know, I don't know, different folks, different strokes

Generations of ladies raised by reality shows
Worry about my lil' sis as she tunes into the TV
She sees women arguing, women fighting, this is what they teaching
Entertaining but misleading, get naked if you sleazy
Boys will like you, think you easy, girl, entice 'em, show you freaky
Yeah, we like big tits and ass like the ones we put to
smash
But we know the difference, only marry those who give us class
Vagina ain't the only thing you got that's powerful
So what you say is hoping that you know the value

Tell me why are you so angry
I guess you think it's cute
And your body's looking nice
Put your habit to this room
Kinky ass
I can see through your disguise
Tell me why you act so high
Guess you must be feeling low
Looking mean all the time, why you putting on a show
Kinky ass
I can see through your disguise
I know it's no lights and it's no cameras
And nobody on the set screaming out action
But you should smile
Baby, don't frown

Keep me away from Medusa
Keep me away from Medusa
Keep me away from Medusa
Keep me away from Medusa
Keep me away from Medusa
Keep me away from Medusa
