And I know you're lonely, and you think you love me,
You can't control the way you feel.
Your friends are all jealous, why don't they join us?
They've heard about me, but that's not enough.

Now don't think I'm crazy, but baby, just maybe, we could turn off the lights.
And just for tonight, we'll forget what's right.

(Chorus):

My infatuation is my devastation, all of these empty
words.
My body cannot stand the simple touch of your hand,
My soul is falling in again.

I know how to please her, she loves when I tease her,
I can tell by the way she licks her lips.
What do you want to do tonight? Let's not go into a fight again..

Now don't think I'm crazy, but baby, just maybe, we can turn off the lights.
And just for tonight, we'll forget what's right.

(Chorus):

My infatuation is my devastation, all of these empty
words.
My body cannot stand the simple touch of your hand,
My soul is falling in again.
