You're just a fake, another of my mistakes.
You tell your lies, and count all of the hearts you break.
Your words bring nothing but pain and hurt to me,
So close your eyes, there's nothing left to see.

(Chorus):

I won't forget the things she said, I don't regret the things I did.

My heart is broken, she's left me here.

This love is done, goodbye my dear.

You're just a fake, another of my mistakes.
You tell your lies, and count all of the hearts you break.
Your words bring nothing but pain and hurt to me,
So close your eyes, there's nothing left to see.

(Chorus):

I won't forget the things she said, I don't regret the things I did.

My heart is broken, she's left me here.

This love is done, goodbye my dear.

(Breakdown):

You're fucking dead, you little whore.

I wanted you and nothing more.

I'll tear your heart out, and watch you bleed.

I'll watch you bleed.
