Donâ€™t say the words
Of our visible world
Just say the words
That you canâ€™t get in your hands

Donâ€™t count the steps
When you are climbing the sky
Just feel the weight
That you are throwing away

Donâ€™t write a rule
If you are leaving the past
Just draw the tracks
That you are seeing ahead

Donâ€™t be afraid
When you feel (the) gust of the wind
Just dream the place
Where you could be and go on

For how much time are you waiting?
Which wing type do you prefer?
Why donâ€™t you use your own?
For how much time you will wait yet?
