Ohh
Now here's a question
why do you walk away and I've good and I've reason to stay I never learned my lesson are you lying to me are you fool to believe you take me for granted so much that I can't stand it wish I was strong enough to let with you

Chorus:
I don't know why I feel like I feel
'cause you're doing me wrong turn my back and you're gone, and you're gone
if only I have a heart made it still
'cause I don't understand why you I feel the way I feel so tell em baby I'ma feel justify is just somebody else on the side

..was made it ..know where I stand and now I'm .. you'r only intentions my promises and wake up I could go on but there's too much demention

Chorus:
I don't know why I feel like I feel
'cause you're doing me wrong
turn my back and you're gone, and you're gone
if only I have a heart made it still
'cause I don't understand why you I feel the way I feel

I gotta get back to my life finally leave this love behind sometimes the truth is so hard to find ohh

[2 x Chorus:]
