

Marema Ngamlai

"Injustice In The World"

Visit "Injustice In The World" on MotoLyrics.com

In this world you find a wickedness where justice and right ought to be,
I told myself, God will judge the righteous and the evil alike, Because everything, every action will happen at its own set time .

(chorus)

God is testing us to show that we're no better than animals

So i realized then that the best thing we can do is to enjoy what we've worked for. There's nothin' else we can do There's no way for us to know, What will happen after we die.

Generations come, and go, But the world stay just the same The sun still rises, and it still goes down Going wearily back to where it must start all over again.

(chorus)2x

Visit Marema Ngamlai page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.