What if?
There is no re-action
What then?
Eyes assuming direct action

Just to be safe
Hide the eyes
From the ever hungry
Just in case for nightfall
Keep 'em focused but not blind
Not too bright

What if?
There is no reflection
What then?
Ears consuming the distortion

I saw them
In deserted space
They were served by sin
They laughed
Cried
Smiled
With no eyes

You have to be warned of what you are
About to see
