"Who Could Say"

Can there ever be a day
To come back away
Or another shade of gray
Who could say
There are days when feelin' blue
It reaches me and you
So what else is there to do
It will go through

Open the door
To a wider scene of life and love
Like at first sight

You are always on the run
Things come undone
Will it ever be the one
A shining sun

A leap of faith
A grasp of reason
Coincidence
A destiny's liaison
A fallen one
The enlightened
Living pulse united

Know...
I know this heart
Right from the start
I love i love
