Como te llamas? Como te llamas?
I swear I've seen you in my dreams
Now on the street, by chance we meet
This twist of fate is crueler than it seems.

Como te llamas? Como te llamas?
Are you too beautiful to speak?
Just give me one single word
Before you turn and walk away from me.

I bet your father was too protective of you
And that your mother kept you locked up in your room
And all your brothers would tell you lies
The devil's in the sunrise

Qual es tu problema? Qual es tu problema?
Am I not good enough for you?
What can I change or rearrange?
My heart is true, just tell me what to do.

There's a devil inside her
One that fills her with pride
Love is just an annoyance
Just a thorn in her side

Como te llamas? Como te llamas?
I swear I've seen you in my dreams
Now on the street, by chance we meet
This twist of fate is crueler than it seems

Como te llamas? Como te llamas?
Are you too beautiful to speak?
Just give me one single word
Before you turn and walk away from me.
